

OUR 2015 STUDENT LEADERS

Mater Dei's Student Leaders for 2015 bring a wonderful combination of unique personalities, with each individual contributing a special strength to the team. They will have many opportunities throughout the year to demonstrate these qualities, both formally and informally, on-campus and in the wider community. The skills that these students develop along the way will be fed back into the larger student community via their role modeling.

Of course, the leadership badges are a lovely symbol of the respect held for the student leaders. These were received at the End-of-Year Mass in 2014, after an election process that included nominations and the presentation of speeches.

"The Leadership group, both Primary and Secondary, pride themselves on their awareness of and ability to demonstrate our Positive Behaviour Expectations, or 'The Mater Dei Way': Be Kind, Be Safe and Be Respectful", said Alison Meani, Leader of Pastoral Care.

Our School Captains for 2015 are Jessica Pound and Jareer Jaber, who especially contribute their welcoming nature, maturity and clear-thinking.

The Secondary House Captains also have much to offer: Paige McCue Shore (Yellow House, caring and gentle with younger students), Emma-Jane Duggan (Blue, a great listener), James Slender (Green, patient and humble) and Beth Simpson (Red, a positive attitude for challenges).

Our Primary House Captains are: Jye Cooper (Blue House, a co-operative team player), Breanna Durrant (Yellow, a great steward), Jake Franzman (Green, determined and confident) and Sarah Vassallo (Red, kind hearted and empathetic).

"These students continually strive to be the best versions of themselves that they can be. It is no accident that they were chosen by their peers, and I know that they will continue to be excellent leaders for Mater Dei in 2015", says Alison.

Cover Photo: Some of our infants students enjoying their recent Water Fun Day