

STATIONS

Each Easter the students celebrate Holy Week with a re-enactment of the Stations of the Cross. In front of staff, family and friends, we invite the students to be involved in the dramatization, gospel reading and reflection passages.

Through these rich stories we hope the students reflect, learn and remember the important messages each station represents, and that they may find aspects relatable to their own feelings and actions in everyday situations.

OF THE CROSS